Future Generation

About us

Ambition for Development and Consultancy (ADC) is a Palestinian-based development and consultancy firm founded in 2023 by Eng. Maha Abu Laban.

ADC provides a wide range of services to individuals and businesses, with a focus on three pillars: educational and development (Tutoring and training), consultancy services, and other services.

Our Team

Our team of experienced and knowledgeable tutors can assist students with all aspects of their studies, from understanding the material to preparing for exams.

Educational Services (High School)

Tutoring

One-on-one and group tutoring sessions for students enrolled in international certificates such as the International Baccalaureate (IB), Advanced Placement (AP), SAT, and International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE).

Internal Assessment & Extended Essay for IB

One-on-one or group workshops for developing research skills, writing essays, and preparing for presentations.

Test Prep

Test preparation courses for students taking the SAT and other standardized tests.

University Counseling

Our counseling services can help students navigate the admissions process, including applications, essays, and choosing the right university.
